

Study French University of Quebec at Montreal (UQAM)

Academic Credit - 3 semester hours

July 7, 2013 – July 27, 2013

UQAM (enrollment 40,000) is a public, French speaking university located in the heart of Montreal. You will study French with hundreds of students from all over the world.

Montreal  •Second Largest French Speaking City
•Known for Culture, Festivals, Parks and Nightlife
•More than 3,000 businesses downtown

Total Cost of $3,150* includes:

- Airfare & local transportation
- Lodging (Apartments)
- Instruction, workshops & materials
- Cultural outings in Montreal
- Day tours to Quebec City & Ottawa
- Ticket to Cirque du Soleil Performance
- Insurance
- Registration fee (non refundable)
- NC A&T Faculty led
- 3 semester credit hours for French
- Optional 3 additional semester credit hours via online courses.

Scholarships Available

Travel to Canada
Requires a valid US Passport

* Students should calculate an additional $500 for food

Tuition fees for additional courses not include in Total Costs.

To learn more about this unique opportunity, registration deadlines and complete costs, contact:
Allegra Laing, Study Abroad Coordinator, Office of International Programs (OIP) at 334-7104, or email: ajlaing@ncat.edu Visit OIP on the Web <http://ncat.abroadoffice.net/>
For International Agriculture, contact John Paul Owens, 167 Carver Hall, at 285-4835 or email:
owensj@ncat.edu